Hi again! This week as part of my education I have been practicing going into the horse trailer. The trailer has a ramp that I have to walk up and my hooves make a funny sound that I am not used to when I walk up it. I thought that the trailer was a little scary at first but once I was inside I was treated to my favourite herbal nugget treats which were super yummy.

The equine team said that I was very brave to go straight in and now I can't wait to go back in! I will get more treats you see and all the extra attention of course.

*Until next time,
Tinkerbelle X*
